

Financial Services Student Employee of the Semester Nominations

Financial Services has adopted a set of values for all employees. These values describe how we approach our assignments and duties within the Division.

The Financial Services Student Employee award recognizes outstanding achievement and a commitment to Division values.

BYU Financial Services Values:

C- Competency R- Respect and Belonging for All Individuals I- Integrity T- Teamwork E- Exceeding Customer Expectations R- Responsible Use of Sacred Resources I- Innovation A- Accountability and Results

Examples of values deserving a nomination might include:

- Exceptional attitude, customer service
- Mastering a significant new skill and putting it into practice
- Improvement or creation of an established process
- Peer leadership
- Effective team collaboration
- Development of needed training video
- Completion of a large project for which they were personally responsible

The Financial Services Student Employee award recipients will receive an award certificate, $100 award (taxable income), a gift certificate to a local restaurant, and their name added to a plaque displayed in A-153. In addition, they will receive recognition at the annual Financial Services Student Luncheon (typically held on the winter semester exam prep day). Recipients may be submitted by the Division for consideration to receive the BYU Student of the Year (SEOTY) award in these categories: Communication, Digital Technology, Problem Solving, Professionalism, Intercultural Fluency, Career Management, Leadership, Teamwork.

Any non-student employee within Financial Services can nominate student employees in the Division.
